

I. B. Contents/description of the proposed research programme

Code (agency) and title of the research programme

Code	Title of the research programme

Code (agency), name and surname of the research programme leader

Code	Name and surname of the research programme leader

5. Theoretical positions, research contents and goals:

--

6. Planned basic research methods:

--

7. Importance for the development of science

--

8. Importance for Slovenia's socio-economic and cultural development¹:

--

9. Embedment of the contents in existing institutional, national and international research and development programmes and projects:

--

10. Programme timetable:

--

The length of text in categories from I.B.5 to I.B.11 can total a maximum 7 pages (font: 11, single spacing)

¹ Direct importance of the programme for the economy and society, industry, social infrastructure, public administration, cultural development, nature and cultural heritage protection. Indirect importance for the society (promotion of the country, access to foreign know-how, inclusion in international division of labour, development of personnel), importance for the development of the profession and engineering practise.

11. Mission, continuity of activities (tradition), organisation and leadership of the programme team and suitability of the research environment (describe the mission of your programme team, how you pursued that mission in the past and how you plan to realise it through this project, how the contents of the programme will be embedded into study programmes, state how long the programme team has been active, how its personnel changed, how it is organised and managed, describe the research environment in which you are working, including links with other research teams within the institution and outside of it):

--