

Application form

Section E (Item 33): Presentation of research programme for evaluation according to the criterion »Scientific, technological or innovative excellence«

Elements of the presentation:

1. Description of the proposed work in the context of the state of the art of the field; references to literature should also be included
2. Objectives of the proposed research with particular emphasis on its originality and potential impact on the development of new research approaches
3. Methodology
4. Timetable of research activities by years (table)

Section F (Item 34): Presentation of research programme for evaluation according to the criterion »Potential impact due to the development, dissemination and use of the expected research results«

Elements of the presentation:

1. The importance for the development of science or profession
2. The potential impact on economic development: participation in creating new products, technologies, technology solutions, innovations (if applicable)
3. The potential impact on social and cultural development (social infrastructure, public administration, cultural development, health care, protection of natural and cultural heritage, promotion of the country, access to foreign knowledge, involvement in the international division of labour, human resources development) (if applicable)